Indulge the Other You

Our Discreet Economy Photography Package: This package balances your need for discretion without taking away from our need to build a portfolio. Under this option, you receive all of your photos digitally encrypted using our state of the art encryption process, however, we retain a copy of the originals.

The following prices reflect our need to build our portfolio while guaranteeing your privacy. As such, under this pricing plan we will take your photos but all members of the party would sign a model release allowing us to use any photos that are not extremely intimate or which do not clearly show your face. Verbiage to this effect would be spelled out in the model release. In order to assuage any lingering concerns, we would delete any particularly sensitive photos before we left but that would be the exception rather than the standard. We are proud of our work and would love to keep a copy as long as it does not infringe upon your privacy.

The pictures are delivered to you in an encrypted format so that your privacy is guaranteed. If you want jpgs of any of the images, that is available. You would merely send us the file as well as the password and we would convert it for you for a fee based on the number of images you select. Please note that we retain the copyright on all photos. This means that you are free to use the photo for your personal use but you cannot distribute it for commercial purposes as our prices definitely reflect a private photo shoot rather than a commercial one.

By the way, the photo shoot includes unlimited outfit changes, but please realize that these take away from photo time. We can come to you if you are located in the Boston or Providence area or studio space may be available at an additional cost. Also arrangements for cities outside Boston/Providence are possible but transportation costs may be incurred although we will do our best to minimize those. We welcome the opportunity to work with you in whatever way works best for you.
